

BARROW, HANLEY, MEWHINNEY & STRAUSS
APPOINTS DIRECTOR OF RESPONSIBLE INVESTING

Ross Campbell Joins Firm to Lead Responsible Investment Initiatives

DALLAS, Texas, June 28, 2017 – Barrow, Hanley, Mewhinney & Strauss, LLC (Barrow Hanley), one of the nation's leading value-oriented investment managers, is pleased to announce that Ross M. Campbell has joined the firm as Director of Responsible Investing. Mr. Campbell will lead the firm's Responsible Investment initiatives and provide further depth to Barrow Hanley's integration of Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) factors into the firm's fundamental, research-driven investment process. Mr. Campbell, with 14 years of investment experience, has also joined the Barrow Hanley investment team, where he will assist in managing the recently-launched U.S. Value and Emerging Markets Value ESG strategies.

Prior to joining Barrow Hanley, Mr. Campbell was President of SRI Research Group, a consulting firm focused on assisting companies with their corporate disclosures and corporate sustainability reports. He completed the US SIF (The Forum for Sustainable and Responsible Investment) training on Fundamentals of Sustainable and Impact Investment. He also completed certificate training from Deloitte for the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) standards of Corporate Sustainability Reports.

Before founding the SRI Research Group, Mr. Campbell managed the Sustainability and Investor Relations efforts for AECOM (ACM) and Denbury Resources Inc. (DNR). His previous investment experience includes serving as a Senior Analyst for Wells Capital Management and as an Investment Management Senior Consultant for FactSet Research Systems. Mr. Campbell earned an MBA from the Cox School of Business at Southern Methodist University and a BA from Franklin and Marshall College.

Barrow Hanley has more than a 30-year track record in managing socially-responsible mandates and currently manages more than $6 billion in Socially Responsible Investing (SRI) portfolios. Barrow Hanley's historical focus on fundamental securities analysis enables the firm to effectively integrate relevant ESG factors into their bottom-up process of stock selection, portfolio construction, and their long-term approach to investment.

"As a top 20 shareholder in more than 100 companies, Barrow Hanley is in a unique position to be an effective advocate for its shareholder clients by engaging and encouraging company managements to strive for excellence in the stewardship and sustainability of corporate assets. With the addition of Ross Campbell, we look forward to continuing that effort, as well as growing our ESG mandated strategies," said Cory Martin, Managing Director of the firm.
